Serial No.
1	From Comptr- No. 276, Pen. dt. Nov 40 Pension papers relating to Mr. P. S. Madhava Rao, retired Asst Professor, Inter College, Nanpara In forwarding the pension Gratuity the Comptr states that Mr. Madhava Rao has put in actual service of 11-8-12 such a service of 3-3-13 days were found to non-qualifying of the balance of 8-4-29 gratuity of Rs 2400 was due under Art 223 of sanctioned by him. But from the records it would seem to be possible to count service qualifying from 9-9-27 when he was appointed in the vacancy from Mr. S. Subba Rao retired from that date, the qualifying service would be raised from 8-4-29 to 9-2-22 days for which gratuity admissible would be Rs 2700/- against Rs 2400/- already sanctioned by the The D. in reply to the Com letter has stated that it is not possible now if the vacancy admits of Mr. Madhava Rao. But the states that it should be possible to the D to definitely say the fact unless the re mis cases destroyed. Submitted this case to the Edr for to get the information. Sd/ 29/12 By

Serial No.

This relates to the case of an officer, who was prematurely retired from service compulsorily in view of his heavy indebtedness, [redacted] after a short service of less than 10 years. Any deduction out of the service put in by him as "not qualifying" will hit him hard and all attempts have [redacted] be made to verify the service so that he may not suffer on account of want of information in the Education Dept.

It is seen from the records, however, that some enquiries have been made [redacted] from the Confidential Branch also re: his service etc - perhaps in connection with a representation of his.

If approved, this may be referred to the General Secretary (C.B.) in the first instance for favour of remarks

mr P.A. Madhava Rao retired from:	1939 -	3 -
He entered service on	1927 -	7 -
The total Service put up..	11 -	8 -

Out of the total service there are certain periods which do not count for pension and they are indicated below :-

(a) Temporary service	0 -	11 -	19
(b) Furlough	0 -	8 -	20
(c) Leave on medical certificate	0 -	1 -	23
(d) Leave without allowances	1 -	5 -	11
	3 -	4 -	13

With the deduction of these interruptions in service, the net qualifying service that would count for pension, comes to out 8 years 4 months and 29 days.

The temporary service referred to above is in connection with the first appointment of mr P.A. Madhava Rao. He was temporarily appointed Lecturer in the Govt Collegiate High School, Bangalore on a pay of Rs 175/- in the grade of Rs 125-10-175, in the vacancy caused by the appointment of mr S. Krishna Rao as Head Master, Govt. High School, Davangere in the chain of arrangements made during the absence of mr C. Subba Rao Head master, Chickballapur, on leave.

Mr Subba Rao is stated to have retired from service from 9.9.27 In case Mr Krishna Rao has been continued as Head Master in the vacancy released by the retirement of Mr Subba Rao, the temporary service put in by Mr Madhava Rao from 10.9.27 to 9.7.28 i.e. for 9 months and 23 days, would count for pension. But the Director of Public Instruction writes to say that it is not possible to furnish definite information about the exact nature of the vacancy at this distance of time. The Audit Office, however, still think that there is possibility of specifying the nature of the vacancy referred to above. Under Art 271 of the M.S.R upon such condition as it may think fit, in each case, to impose, Govt may condone all interruptions in service. It is for consideration whether the temporary service of 9 months 23 days Mr P.A. Madhava Rao may not be given the benefit of Counting the temporary service of 9 months and 23 days for purposes of pension as a special case.

Secondly with the addition of this temporary service, the net qualifying service comes to only 9 years 2 months and 22 days.

As it is less than ten years, he is entitled to any pension. But as under Art 272 of the M.S.R. Govt may condone a deficiency not exceeding twelve months. In the present case the period required to make 10 years of qualifying service, is 9 months and 8 days and it is within the period admissible. It is also for consideration whether this deficiency ~~of 9 m + 8 days~~ may be condoned.
without these concessions he will not get any pension.

Points for orders

(a) Counting of a temporary service of 9 months and 23 days for purposes of pension.

(b) Condonation of a deficiency of 9 months and 8 days.

Retd. Mr. Madhava Rao was ordered to be compulsorily retired, when he was just 43 years of age, not for inefficiency but due to chronic indebtedness. If in view of this, the above two concessions are shown as a special case, he will get a pension of Rs. 50/- p.m. Otherwise, he is entitled only to a gratuity of Rs. 2,400.

(W) 18/12. (Genl. Secy.)
(Fin. Secy.)

The case may deserve some consideration - this matter is persistently pestering for some relief. The above concessions may be sanctioned, if possible.

From

M. VIRARAJA URS, Esqr., B.A., B.L.,
Comptroller to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

To

Rajasevaprasakta A.N.Raghavachar, Esqr., M.A.,
Financial Secretary to Government, of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Subject:- Pension case of Mr.P.A.Madhava Rao. Retired Assistant Professor Intermediate College, Bangalore.

With reference to article 430 (a) M.S.R. VI Edition and in continuation of my D.O. letter No.213/Pen dated 17-10-1940 to the General Secretary to Government, I have the honour to forward herewith the pension papers of Mr.P.A.Madhava Rao, late Assistant Professor, Intermediate College, Bangalore, received with correspondence ending with letter No.L.Dis.904-98 of 40-41 dated 25-10-1940 from the Director of Public Instruction, in Mysore Bangalore, and to state that out of the total service of 11 years. 8 months. 12 days. rendered by the retired Assistant Professor a period of 3 Years. 3 months. 13 days. as detailed in the margin has been deducted as non-qualifying and for the rest of his service viz., 8 Years. 4 months. 29 days. he is entitled to a gratuity of Rs.2,400/- under articles 223 and 320 (a) M.S.R.

	Years.	months.	days.
Temporary Service	0.	11.	19
Furlough	0.	8.	20
Leave on medical certificate	0.	1.	23
E. W. A.	1.	5.	11
	3	3	13

It would appear from the records enclosed that the applicant was first appointed in the vacancy of Mr.S.Krishna Rao appointed as Head Master Davangere High School Vice Mr.S.Sivaraman transferred to Hari-Hallappa's High School in the arrangements made consequent on the grant of leave to Mr.S.Subba Rao, Head Master, Chickballapur. It is also seen from the Director's letter dated 1-8-1940 that Mr.C.Subba Rao, retired retired from service from 9-9-1927. The Director of Public Instruction who was requested to intimate if Mr.P.A.Madhava Rao's service can be counted for pension from 9-9-1927, has stated in his letter dated 26-10-1940 that it is not possible to furnish definite information about the exact nature of the vacancy at this distance of time.

It seems to me that it ought to be possible for the Director of Public Instruction to state the nature of the vacancy in which Mr. Madhava Rao was appointed by looking into the concerned records which may not have been destroyed. If Mr.Madhava Rao is treated as counting service from 9-9-1927 the date from which Mr. S.Subba Rao retired, his qualifying service will be ~~8~~ 9 Years. ~~4~~ 2 months. ~~29~~ 22. days. as against S.No.29 as stated in para 1 above. ~~In~~ For this service he will be entitled to a gratuity of Rs.2,700/- subject to the adjustment of an anticipatory gratuity of Rs.2,400/- only sanctioned by this office.

I solicit orders of Government in the matter.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

For Comptroller.
